CORN FOR SALE.

As Committee of Geo. G. White, I will, at 12 o'clock, noon, on SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1903. offer at public sale, at the Main-street entrance of the Courthouse yard in Paris, Ky., about 470 shocks of corn on the Geo. G. White farm. Said corn to be sold by the barrel, to be averaged in the shock, money to be paid when the corn is averaged.

GOOD SERVICE.—Mr. D. D. Connor has secured the services of a first-class German barber to take charge of his new little barber shop, at the Fordham, and invites his friends to call and give him a share of their trade. First-class service guaranteed. (nov18)

THE PLACE TO BUY.—Call at the Bourbon Produce Co., for fish and oysters. We keep a supply on hand all the time. We have our fish dressed before we deliver it. Call and see us. Arkle's old stand, opposite the court house.
JAMES ARKLE,
MANAGER. (1nov2t)

CUPID'S ARROW.

—Lewis Kriener, son of N. Kriener, was married yesterday, to Miss Jersey Geffinger, of Harrodsburg, the marriage took place in Lexington. They arrived in this city last night.

—The marriage of Miss Martha Pryor Lucas, of Forks of Elkhorn, to Mr.
Ernest Preston Smith, of this city, will take place, Wednesday, Nov. 25th, at Buck Run Baptist church, Forks of Elkhorn. The happy couple will leave immediately for a honeymoon visit to this city, the home of the bridegroom, and will then go to live at the Forks of Elkhorn.

ALWAYS PURE.—Fabet is always pure and as clear as a crystal. nov17

For concrete pavements and all kinds of cement work see Geo. W. Stuart.

BIRTHS.

—To the wife of Morris Fitzgerald, a daughter—seventh born.

—In this city, Friday, to the wife of Chas. Burns, nee Birdie Minter, a daughter, weight 10 pounds.

—In this city, Friday, to Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Frank, twins, a son and a daughter. They were named Robert Bowen and Hallie Louise.

BEARS INSPECTION.—If you drink beer, drink the best. Fabet defies pure food inspectors to find a single impurity in their beer. nov17

DEATHS.

—Mrs. Lucinda Gillespie died near Little Rock, Saturday night. She was aged 84 years.

—The funeral services of Ray Smith took place from Palmer school house, yesterday, at 8 o'clock.

—Miss Florence McCorkle, a graduate of the Bourbon Female College, and a sister of Miss Allie May McCorkle, who taught here for several years, died at Eminence, of typhoid fever.

—At Harrodsburg, Ky., Prof. John Augustus Williams, one of the most noted and prominent educators in the state, and an author of note, died at his home Sunday, after a illness of only three days. He was 79 years of age, and his death is ascribed to the infirmities of old age. He was born in Bourbon county, near Paris, Sept. 25, 1824.

NEW PLACE.—Mr. Geo. T. Lyons is ready to wait on his customers in his new building, on Main near 10th. He now has one of the neatest saloons in the city. 1t

TO-DAY.—Fresh fish, oysters and dressed chickens, to-day.

CHURCH CHIMES.

—Rev. J. S. Norris will preach at the Baptist church Sunday morning and night

—Dowie's first sermon after he returns to Zion from New York will probably be the hottest ever.

—The Rev. Mr. Mann, formerly pastor of the Methodist church, in this city, is conducting a protracted meeting at Flemingsburg.

—Rev. J. B. Brinley and son Newton, recently closed a meeting at Madison, Mo., with forty-four additions to the Christian Church.

—Bishop Dudley, of Louisville, was elected a vice president of the congress of the Protestant Episcopal Church of America at Pittsburg.

—The Pope gave his blessing to 20-000 Romans Sunday, and many others were turned away, being unable to gain admission. The Pope addressed the multitudes for fifteen minutes on the Gospel of the day.

—Official information is lacking, but rumor has it that Dean Lee, of Lexington, is under consideration as the rector of St. Bartholomew's Church, one of the leading Episcopal congregations in New York, whose rector has recently been elected Coadjutor to Bishop Potter.

—At the Second Presbyterian church on Sunday morning, a congregational meeting was held, when the following additional officers were elected as elders of the church: F. L. McChesney, C. B. Mitchell, George R. Bell, J.
Miller Ward, Capt. Ed. Spears, Dr. J. T.
Vansant and James Dodge. This is the first election of officers in the church, since Dr. Rutherford's pastorate, some-think like twenty years.

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN GOOD and BAD COAL

Is not the price, but simply one is good and one is bad. The result of buying poor qualities is that you are dissatisfied.

When you get tired of experimenting, come and get some of our

"Italian" Blue Gem, or if you wish a cheaper Coal, try our Mountain Ash Jellico

We also sell the pure Cannel and Kentucky Coal. Come and see us when you need good Coal.
